

K-love is a excellent encouragment in our community. It would be very traggic if it was off the air for any reason. Our community depends on the music and uplifting word of K-Love. I would like to say that the surrounding cities would greatly be affected without K-love and it is in the publics interest to continue the broadcasting.